EXPRESSION OF APPRECIATION:

At the request of the family of Helen Ketchum, a Memorial Service was held last Sunday during the worship service.
The following is a letter received from Helen's daughter:

Revrend Pullis and Members of the Church,

Our family would like to thank you for the beautiful service. It meant so much to me and my family. It seemed so unreal until we had the beautiful service and that made it final for us.
To all the women who made coffee and goodies, we thank you from the bottom of our hearts.
You people really made it our day and we want to thank you again.

Barbara Sirianni and Family

When I entered the OBC Co. motor at 10:45 AM, I spotted HLRP in her usual spot and so went over and joined her and that was at the same time interesting/amusing and irritating. It is interesting/amusing in that I am now completely at home in the church and do not get nervous/uncomfortable when—ever I sit. I used to be uncomfortable therein but now plus.
HLRP is pleased to see me arrive and join her and that gives me pleasure. Irritating in the sense that there seems to be no privacy in the midst of HLRP and her pals/buddies/Chorus—they all visit and chat and I like to be alone with my thoughts when in church. When I sit in my usual pew—far right hand side of the church, second pew from the front—I am very alone and no one is near me and I do like that. How peculiar that the only place that one can get any privacy is by sitting in the front row, if you will. Rev Pullis was excellent today -- he was saying things that either went over the heads of most of the congregation or which made most of them mad. His message: Christianity is an intellectual & a visceral undertaking at the same time. RTP was mentioned in the prayer
